Profile

Jeff is a practicing Physical Therapist for the Bradley Clinic since August of 2020. He has lived and practiced in Kankakee County for 22 years, of which 20 years have been in Outpatient Orthopedics.

Jeff is highly sensitive to patients' needs and comfort. He enjoys being able to reduce pain and promote healing in patients by administering therapeutic treatments such as progressive resistance exercises, soft tissue massage, joint mobilization, manual traction, and muscle energy techniques. Jeff has a proven history of keeping patients committed to treatment plans both in and out of therapy sessions.
