Profile

Brad attended the University of Illinois in Champaign and received his undergraduate degree in Kinesiology in 2013. He began his IBJI career the following year as a rehab tech before attending Midwestern University for his physical therapy degree.

Brad enjoys working with patients of all ages and providing individualized care to everyone he treats. He believes in setting goals consistent with improving function and increasing participation in everyday activities. As a strong advocate for emphasizing patient education, Brad's ultimate goal is to provide patients with the knowledge and tools necessary to progress in therapy and to continue improving following discharge.

Brad lives with his wife, son, and silver lab. In his free time, Brad enjoys playing basketball and softball, painting, and going for family walks. Brad is a big Cubs fan and loves going to Wrigley Field to catch a game whenever he can.
