Profile

Sabrina Murino has been an occupational therapist since 2005, working primarily in upper extremity rehabilitation in an outpatient setting. She completed her Masters of Science in Occupational Therapy (MSOT) at Washington University in St. Louis, after her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC). In 2015, she received her Certification in Hand Therapy (CHT) from the Hand Therapy Certification Commission. Sabrina began working at Hinsdale Orthopedics in 2010, and has enjoyed working with the patients, other clinicians, doctors, and staff. You will often hear her before you see her, as she encourages her patients and coworkers on a daily basis. She believes in educating her patients and tailoring treatments to each person's specific needs and daily occupations. When Sabrina is not at work, she enjoys spending time with her husband, two boys, and dog.

Her hobbies include traveling, crafting, reading, and cooking.
