Profile

Michelle is a graduate of the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign where she earned her Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology. She then attended Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science where she earned her Doctorate in Physical Therapy. Michelle joined the IBJI family in 2020. She enjoys working with diverse patient populations experiencing a wide range of physical challenges.

Michelle is excited to be a part of the collaborative care environment at IBJI. She strongly believes in partnering with patients through education, and provides them with the tools needed to take an active role in their own recovery. Michelle works to tailor her therapy sessions around individual patient goals while striving to restore their prior level of function and improve their quality of life.

Michelle grew up in the northwest suburbs of Chicago. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends. She is also a big sports fan and has fun playing a variety of sports, including softball, tennis, and golf. She is an avid Cubs and Fighting Illini fan, too!
