Profile

Kevin is a Chicago native that graduated in 2018 from Our Lady of Fatima University in the Philippines. Kevin joined the IBJI team in 2018 before getting licensed as a physical therapist. He enjoys working with patients of diverse conditions including sports related injuries, post-surgical and joint replacement. Kevin is passionate about working with patients of all ages to develop a comprehensive plan of care for that individual's need to assist in restoring to prior level of function.

Outside of work, Kevin enjoys spending most of his time outside working on cars, fishing, hiking, traveling and playing sports.
