Profile

Amanda Wilkins, PTA joined the IBJI team in April of 2019. Amanda received her Associate of Fine Arts from the College of Lake County in 2016. After College of Lake County, Amanda transitioned into the PTA program at Oakton Community College where she received her Associate of Applied Science degree in 2018. Amanda enjoys treating a variety of different patients and finding a customized treatment program that works best for each individual to get them back to functioning at their highest potential. Amanda plans to further her knowledge of physical therapy through continuing education courses.

Amanda has a background in competitive soccer. She played on the College of Lake County team for two years, and still continues to play recreationally. In addition to playing soccer, Amanda enjoys being outdoors in her free time.
